

Denken leidt tot leren

The video player displays a presentation slide with the title "Denken leidt tot leren". The slide is divided into four main sections:

- Voorbereiding: Shows icons of a computer monitor and an open book, labeled "Kennis verwerven".
- Start: Shows a person at a desk with five other people, labeled "(In)Checken".
- Verwerken: Shows a group of people working together, labeled "Nadenken → leren".
- Afronding: Shows a person at a desk with five other people, labeled "Controleren".

At the bottom of the slide, there is a small video frame showing a man speaking. The video player interface includes a progress bar, a timestamp of 1:19 / 8:18, and various control icons.
